done about five years ago is a change from that lecture format, uh... inside the classroom, where sometimes I'm lecturing about these concepts for 45 to 50 minutes. I've taken that out and I put it outside the timetable and kind of condensed it to about an eight to ten minute video. The first bit of digestion happens in the mouth. So this is where starch, gets broken down into maltos. So it doesn't get broken down into a... Obviously, we're that doing that the flip model, where we watch the videos outside of class that way we don't have to take up all the time with the disseminating of the content, we can take that information put it out and that video that takes eight ten minutes, twenty minutes after everything's written down and all said and done and now we can do activities like this, uh... in class rather than just me going back and forth.

28:25 MYRON DUECK: Hang on a second. What you mean by outside the timetable?
